The frame of the Uma Mother of Pearl Mirror has been painstakingly covered in a random pattern of the eponymous shell material. Given the neutral colors of this natural material, a lively textural feel is created when the crisp ivories and pale tans are intermingled from piece to piece. This white decorative mirror has a beveled edge and the mother of pearl wraps around to the outside edge of the frame; the application requiring a tremendous amount of handwork. This mirror has a pair of hanging cleats to allow hanging vertically or horizontally.
