MOE'S

Mako Sideboard Brown

Textured front, adjustable storage behind it. Mako brings Art Deco geometry into today with a rich brown palette and a subtle shagreen look that catches the light. Wrapped in shagreen-patterned polyurethane over a solid oak frame, it balances texture with structure, then lifts everything on brass legs with antique-gold tone. Inside, two shelves adjust to your needs, from barware to board games. Storage, with a wink and keeps your room feeling pulled-together.

- Art Deco Angle: Clean geometry and a shagreen-look surface bring vintage cues into modern rooms, without feeling fussy or formal.
- Textured Vegan Leather: Shagreen-patterned polyurethane adds visual depth and wipes clean easily, paired with an oak frame for steady support.
- Solid And Panelled: Solid oak framing teams with plywood panels on doors and casework, giving the piece a crisp outline and reliable structure.
- Flexible Interior Storage: Two interior shelves adjust to suit barware, serveware, or electronics, so you can organize once and tweak later.
