Introducing the Eyelet Vanity Stool, a beautifully crafted piece that combines timeless elegance with modern comfort. Made from solid oak, this bench features a sleek and sturdy design that showcases the natural beauty of the wood. The distinctive eyelet details in the legs add a unique touch, making this stool not only functional but also a decorative accent in any room. The seat is upholstered in a performance boucle fabric (poly blend), offering a soft and textured surface that enhances comfort while adding a cozy, refined aesthetic. One yard of fabric required for reupholstery.
