MOE'S

Emmy's here to warm up the room—without squaring things off. This contemporary sectional leans into a curved form and rounded edges for a softer, more relaxed layout that still feels design-forward. Wrapped in highly textured, soft polyester in a vivid ginger tone, it adds warmth with a little personality. Inside, foam, feather, and fiber cushioning keeps lounging comfortable and easy to settle into. Finished with a cutout leg detail, it stays visually light—like good company.

- Curved, Playful Profile: Rounded edges and a contemporary silhouette soften the space, giving the sectional a laid-back feel with a sculptural point of view.
- Textured Polyester Upholstery: Soft, highly textured 100% polyester in ginger brings warmth and comfort to the room, with a vivid tone that adds a little extra personality.
- Supportive Frame Core: An engineered wood frame anchors the shape with dependable structure, helping the sectional stay steady through daily use and re-styling.
- Cloud-Feel Cushions: Foam, feather, and fiber fill creates a comfy sit with gentle loft, balancing sink-in softness and supportive comfort.
