Tessa Dining Bench Natural

Edges that don't play it straight. Tess gives tradition a nudge with sculptural moves and standout materials. Made from solid oak with a live-edge top, it celebrates natural grain and one-of-a-kind character. Three panel legs ground the form, each one cut with a subtle protrusion that adds rhythm and dimension. The silhouette stays simple, but the details make it memorable. Sculptural, grounded, and quietly bold.

- Live Edge, One-of-a-Kind: Showcasing the natural contours and character of solid oak through its stunning live edge design.
