DESCRIPTION

A trip through the looking glass can lead back to a storied time when the mirror was a thing of wonder. Our Camilla Mirror seems to be a composition born in that era but it's a brand new decorative piece. The round frame has a convincing patina that has been created by our talented finish artisans in a mix of gray, white and gold distressing. The antiqued mirror inset into the personable frame furthers the vintage feel with its concave shape that was once all the rage.
