Bryn Chaise Camel

A larger-profile chaise dressed in three textures at once. Boucle, velvet, and a wool blend layer across the Bryn in warm camel tones, giving it a textured, considered depth you notice before you sit. A solid oak and beech frame keeps the generous profile grounded, while foam-and-fiber fill makes it a place to settle in for the long haul. Sustainability runs underneath, with an FSC-certified wood frame and GRS-certified recycled fabrics. Comfort with a conscience.

- Larger-Profile Lounging: A generous, larger-profile chaise gives you room to stretch out, with a relaxed silhouette that anchors a living room as a place to unwind.
- Three-Texture Upholstery: Boucle, velvet, and a wool blend layer together in warm camel tones, building a textured, considered surface with genuine tonal depth.
- Solid Wood Frame: A solid oak and beech frame keeps the larger profile grounded and stable, giving the chaise lasting structure under the soft upholstery.
- Settle-In Comfort: Foam-and-fiber fill brings soft, supportive comfort to the seat, making the Bryn a place to settle in for long afternoons and slow evenings.
- Certified Sustainable: An FSC-certified wood frame and GRS-certified recycled fabrics bring responsible sourcing to the piece, so comfort and conscience share the same seat.
