

Enhance your living space with the timeless elegance of the Loreen Mantel Clock. Crafted from select hardwoods and veneers, this clock features an antique ocean blue finish that adds a touch of coastal charm to any décor.

Equipped with a single-chime movement, the Loreen plays the melodious Westminster chimes on the hour, creating a soothing ambiance throughout your home. With automatic nighttime chime shutoff, you can enjoy uninterrupted rest without disturbance.

Designed for easy readability, the clock boasts a white dial adorned with black Arabic numerals and a minute track, complemented by matte black-finished hour and minute hands. A brushed, aged silver-finished bezel surrounds a flat glass lens, while the pendulum features a matching brushed, aged silver-finished bob and metal stick.

Complete with felt-covered feet to prevent scratching, the Loreen Mantel Clock is powered by a quartz, battery-operated movement. It requires three AA batteries (not included) for reliable performance.
