The Blakely Cabinet effortlessly merges classic and modern design elements, making it a good choice for various interior styles. Constructed from solid wood with a neutral grayish-brown finish, this cabinet pairs perfectly with the Blakely Sideboard for a cohesive look. The glass cabinet doors at the top, framed by wood, offer a stylish display option, while the bottom features solid wood doors for discreet storage. Intriguing triangular carvings on the bottom doors add texture and visual interest, complemented by black industrial handles for a contemporary touch.
