Matias Swivel Chair Pebble

High back, solid wood arms, mid-century lines that learned to swivel. A transitional form gives the Matias a relaxed-but-refined presence, with support that has your shoulders covered through a long evening. Pebble textured fabric covers a foam-and-fiber seat on a solid poplar and plywood frame, all on a 360-degree swivel base that turns smoothly toward the room or the next conversation. Mid-century looks, with modern moves.

- High-Back Comfort: A high supportive back and solid wood arms shape a mid-century form, made transitional for relaxed, everyday lounging in the living room.
- Durable Flecked Fabric: Pebble textured, flecked fabric brings a durable, easy-living surface and a warm neutral tone that suits a range of rooms.
- Poplar and Plywood Frame: A solid poplar and plywood frame with solid wood arms holds the high back steady and supportive through everyday use.
- Full 360 Swivel: A 360-degree swivel base turns smoothly underfoot, so the chair pivots toward a view, the room, or the conversation easily.
