

V978A - Maria (Dining Arm Chair)

As Shown: V978A. Fabric: Groovy Spice. Finish: Barrington.

This Continental neoclassical Maria Dining Chair uses simplified, stylized design elements. The plain exposed frame has a rectangular upholstered panel back under a floating top rail with a center "stop-turned" hand pull. Slightly flared arms extend forward over simple turned front posts with a plain seat rail over square tapered legs. The simplified form allows for both a transitional or traditional interpretation, depending upon frame finish and cover application. The simplicity of the form will bring a fresh look paired with a traditional table, while at the same time softening a modern table.
