Kettel Accent Table Bronze

A side table that doesn't play background. Kettel brings that found-it-on-a-trip energy, now in a bronze finish with an industrial edge that keeps things grounded. The drum-style silhouette reads clean and sculptural, while the rustic finish adds depth, not fuss. Crafted from aluminum, it's easy to move, easy to style, and ready to do the most with minimal effort. Consider it Moe's Home's small-table mic drop.

- Round, Drum Profile: A sculptural round silhouette with an industrial lean that slips neatly beside a sofa or chair without stealing the whole scene.
- Rustic Bronze Finish: Aluminum construction with rich bronze tonality for a lived-in look that plays well with warm woods, leather, and matte black accents.
- Solid, One-Piece Feel: The drum-style form keeps things stable and visually grounded, with a weighty presence that looks intentional from every angle.
- Easy Styling Swap: Compact enough to float wherever you need a surface—cocktail, book stack, or lamp—then move when the layout changes.
