Dimitri Sofa

Caracole

A refined balance of structure and softness, this sofa introduces a tailored silhouette framed by sculptural exposed wood arms. Its clean lines and generous proportions create a composed presence, while the architectural detailing adds depth and visual rhythm to the design. Upholstered in a soft neutral fabric, it offers a calm and inviting foundation for modern living spaces. Featuring exposed wood in Galway Burl, the finish brings warmth and natural character, elevating the piece with a rich organic texture. Designed for both comfort and versatility, this modern luxury sofa anchors the room with quiet confidence and timeless appeal.
