Hughes Floor Mirror Iron Grey

Consider this your daily confidence boost, framed in iron. Hughes pairs a rounded-top silhouette with an aged grey patina that feels grounded, not fussy—perfect for that transitional industrial sweet spot. Rivet detailing adds just enough edge, while the full mirror keeps things bright and practical. Built with mirrored glass and a sturdy MDF back panel, it's made to lean, live, and look good doing it.

- Industrial, Softened: A rounded-top floor mirror with rivet detailing and an aged grey patina, balancing utilitarian attitude with an easy, transitional look.
- Iron And Glass: Iron framing surrounds mirrored glass for crisp reflections, while the grey finish adds depth and character without overpowering nearby pieces.
- Sturdy Back Panel: An MDF back panel reinforces the mirror for everyday stability, making it a reliable leaning piece for bedrooms, halls, or closets.
