Raf Outdoor Dining Chair Natural Set Of Two

Pull up a chair—this one actually has a point of view. Raf nods to Arts and Crafts craftsmanship, bringing that honest, handmade energy outdoors. A teak wood frame sets a warm foundation, while twist synthetic hyacinth adds texture that reads classic, not fussy. Subtle turned details quietly show off the work, and the hand-woven seat keeps things airy and comfortable. Consider it your outdoor dining chair, with better manners.

- Craft-Forward Silhouette: Arts and Crafts cues and subtle turned details give this chair a considered look that plays nicely with modern outdoor setups.
- Teak and Hyacinth Mix: Teak wood framing pairs with outdoor-safe twist synthetic hyacinth for natural warmth and texture that holds up to open-air living.
- Hand-Woven Finish: Woven by hand for a more nuanced look, with each wrap adding character you can see up close and appreciate daily.
- Weather-Ready Weave: Spills wipe away and damp mornings pass with ease, thanks to a water-resistant, stain-resistant weave that keeps the chair fresh through every outdoor season.
