MOE'S

Faye Sofa Dark Green Faux Mohair

A curved back and a firm bench seat give Faye its vintage, art-deco lean—stretched out to seat three. The sofa keeps proportions generous and grounded, perched on petite, rounded rubberwood legs that lighten the whole look. Dark green faux mohair brings a moody, plush depth and a soft hand, while a solid beech and plywood frame with S-frame and webbing keeps everything supported. Foam and fiber cushioning sinks in for long evenings. Drama, comfortably seated.

- Vintage-Inspired Form: Larger, grounded proportions and a curved back give the Faye sofa a relaxed, art-deco statement that's easy to style in living spaces.
- Plush Faux Mohair: Dense dark green faux mohair, a plush 100% polyester velvet, delivers a soft feel with a moody, inviting depth of color.
- Supportive Frame: A solid beech and plywood frame with S-frame and webbing provides consistent support and structure through years of everyday use.
- Sink-In Comfort: Foam and fiber cushioning in the seat and back delivers a plush feel made for long lounging and everyday relaxing alike.
