With the aura of a rustic mountain cottage, the Linville Falls Two-Drawer Nightstand has an airy feel with an open area at the top and two self-closing drawers. Crafted of Pine Veneers, the nightstand is finished in Shadow, a charred black finish achieved through Shou Sugi Ban, a Japanese technique that creates a look resembling burnt wood. Textured metal bar pulls in an antique pewter finish add an organic accent. Functional features include a double USB charging port and a cord clip on the back.
