Mallory Dining Table Natural

A dining table that does more than hold dinner—it holds attention. Mallory brings a checkered marquetry top into the everyday, finished in a natural-tone lacquer that adds warmth and a soft, polished glow. Rounded corners and a gently softened edge keep it welcoming, while sculptural curved pedestal legs echo the top's geometry for a cohesive, design-forward look. Built to comfortably seat eight, it's made for long meals and even longer conversations.

- Artful Checkered Top: Precision marquetry creates a graphic, checkered surface that reads as crafted and intentional, giving your dining space a strong focal point.
- Oak-Layered Surface: Solid oak edging pairs with oak veneer over MDF for a smooth, consistent top that brings natural tone and everyday durability.
- Grounded Leg Mix: Oak veneer over plywood legs meet an acacia wood leg frame, creating a solid base that feels stable without looking bulky.
- Seats Eight Comfortably: Rounded corners, a softened edge, and generous seating room make it easy to host eight without anyone fighting for elbow space.
