Petra Marble Catchall Grey Marble

A catch-all with corners too soft to catch on anything. The rectangular format holds a good handful of everyday objects yet stays compact enough to sit neatly on most surfaces, giving the Petra catchall an easy, practical footprint. Deeply rounded corners and softly curved edges make it smooth and comfortable to handle, with no sharp lines, while natural grey marble brings its own veining. Keys, sunglasses, a candle — suddenly the surface looks curated.

- Grey Marble: Natural grey marble forms the tray, its veining and tone varying from piece to piece for stone character that is never quite the same twice.
- Softly Curved Edges: Deeply rounded corners and smooth, curved edges make it comfortable to handle every day, with no sharp lines to catch on or wear down.
- Entryway Ready: Set on a console, it instantly organizes keys, sunglasses, and small everyday items, making a surface feel tidy, considered, and curated.
