MOE'S

Cascade Cast Aluminum Sculpture

A ribbon form that loves a long loop. Continuous cast aluminum curves through the Cascade sculpture, creating two interlocking loops with a Mobius-like flow. The silver finish has a soft, brushed quality, catching light differently as the viewing angle changes. Its open, looping form gives a surface movement, shine, and a little visual mischief. Endless-looking curves keep the eye happily circling. All curve, all momentum.

- Loop After Loop: Two interlocking loops create a continuous ribbon form, giving the Cascade sculpture a clear sense of movement from every angle.
- Silver Cast Aluminum: Cast aluminum in a silver finish catches light along the curves, adding a shifting presence to styled tabletops and shelves.
- Always In Motion: The Mobius-like flow keeps the eye moving around the form, creating an endless-looking curve with sculptural rhythm, so the design feels considered from every angle.
