Nolla Outdoor Accent Chair Light Grey Set Of Two

Stacks neatly, then shows up strong. Nolla's modern barrel seat makes a small patio feel considered, with a wraparound curve that invites you to linger. Made from durable polypropylene, each chair is lightweight to move, easy to wipe down, and ready for sun-soaked weekends. When extra guests appear, the set of two stows away fast with a simple stack. In Light Grey, it keeps the look calm and easy to mix. Grab two now, make room later.

- Barrel-Seat Curve: Modern rounded back and arms create a cozy perch that looks intentional outdoors and keeps conversation angled in, not out.
- All-Weather Polypropylene: Durable polypropylene handles everyday outdoor use and cleans easily, so spills, sunscreen, and pollen don't become a weekend project.
- Steady, Lightweight Feel: The chair's solid form feels stable when you sit, yet stays light enough to shift around the patio with ease.
- Stack And Store: Set of two stacks neatly to save space between gatherings, then pulls back out fast when extra seats suddenly sound like fun.
